Fraud Notice

"Any person who knowingly presents false information in an application for insurance or for a viatical settlement contract may be subject to criminal or civil liability."

Disclosure Notice to Viator (Policy Owner)

1. There are possible alternatives to viatical settlement contracts/selling your life insurance. This may include the option of an accelerated death benefit or policy loans offered by your life insurance company. You are advised to consult a financial advisor, certified public accountant or an attorney regarding these potential alternatives.
2. That a viatical settlement broker represents exclusively the viator, and not the insurer or the viatical settlement provider, and owes a fiduciary duty to the viator, including a duty to act according to the viator's instructions and in the best interest of the viator.
3. Some or all of the proceeds of the viatical settlement may be taxable under federal income tax and/or state franchise and income tax laws. You should consult a professional tax advisor.
4. Viatical settlement proceeds could be subject to the claims of creditors.
5. Receipt of the proceeds of a viatical settlement may affect your eligibility to receive Medicaid or other government benefits or entitlements. Advice on such effects should be obtained from the appropriate government agencies.
6. The viator has a right to rescind a viatical settlement contract before the earlier of thirty days after the date upon which the viatical settlement contract is executed by all parties or fifteen days after the viatical settlement proceeds have been paid to the viator. Rescission, if exercised by the viator, is effective only if both notice of the rescission is given, and the viator repays all proceeds and any premiums, loans, and loan interest paid on account of the viatical settlement within the rescission period. If the insured dies during the rescission period, the viatical settlement contract shall be deemed to have been rescinded, subject to repayment by the viator or the viator's estate of all viatical settlement proceeds and any premiums, loans, and loan interest that have been paid by the viatical settlement provider or purchaser within sixty days of the insured's death.
7. Funds will be sent to the viator within three business days after the viatical settlement provider has received written acknowledgement from the insurer or group administrator that ownership of the policy or interest in the certificate has been transferred and that the beneficiary has been designated pursuant to the viatical settlement contract.
8. Entering into a viatical settlement contract may cause other rights or benefits, including conversion rights and waiver of premium benefits that may exist under the policy, to be forfeited by the viator. Assistance should be sought from a financial advisor.

9. Disclosure to a viator shall include distribution of a brochure describing the process of viatical settlements. The National Association of Insurance Commissioner's (NAIC) form for the brochure shall be used unless another form is developed or approved by the commissioner.

10. All medical, financial or personal information solicited or obtained by a viatical settlement provider or viatical settlement broker about an insured, including the insured's identity or the identity of family members, a spouse or a significant other may be disclosed as necessary to effect the viatical settlement between the viator and the viatical settlement provider. If you are asked to provide this information, you will be asked to consent to the disclosure. The information may be provided to someone who buys the policy or provides funds for the purchase. You may be asked to renew your permission to share information every two years.

11. Following the execution of a viatical settlement contract, the insured may be contacted for the purpose of determining the insured's health status and to confirm the insured's residential or business street address and telephone number, or as otherwise provided under state law. This contact shall be limited to once every three months if the insured has a life expectancy of more than one year, and no more than once per month if the insured has a life expectancy of one year or less. All such contacts shall be made only by a viatical settlement provider licensed in the state or by the authorized representative of a duly licensed viatical settlement provider.

12. The name, business address, and telephone number of Asset Life Settlements, LLC, a viatical settlement broker, is 1507 Park Center Dr., Suite 1B, Orlando, Florida, phone: (888) 335-4769.

13. Asset Life Settlements, LLC, a viatical settlement broker, shall submit to you and your agent (if any), a viatical settlement broker working exclusively on behalf of you, the viator, a full, complete, and accurate description of all offers, counter-offers, acceptances, and rejections relating to the proposed viatical settlement contract which shall be described in your client and producer letter and bidding summary form that you shall acknowledge by your signature.

14. Asset Life Settlements, LLC, a viatical settlement broker, will provide the viator with a written disclosure of any affiliations or contractual arrangements between Asset Life Settlements, LLC and any person making an offer in connection with the proposed viatical settlement contract.

15. Asset Life Settlements, LLC, a viatical settlement broker, will be compensated. The viatical settlement provider, not the viator, will compensate Asset Life Settlements, LLC based on a formula that is a percentage of the offer obtained (the amount and method of calculating the compensation paid). Compensation can include, but is not limited to, bonuses, expense reimbursement, overrides or other funds in addition to broker commissions.

16. Asset Life Settlements, LLC, shall disclose the amount and method of calculating the viatical settlement broker's compensation and, if any portion of the viatical settlement broker's compensation is taken from the viatical settlement offer, the total amount of the viatical settlement offer and the viatical settlement broker's compensation as a percentage of that total. As used in this paragraph, compensation includes anything of value paid or given to a viatical settlement broker related to the settlement of a policy.

Questions to Ask

- Do I still need life insurance protection?
- If I sell my policy, how do they decide how much cash I get?
- Is this an employer or other group policy? If so, do I need permission to sell it?
- If I sell my policy, who will be the legal owner?
- Do I need the advice of a tax or estate planning advisor before I decide to sell my policy?
- Who will have specific information about me, my family or my health status?
- After I sell my policy, can it be resold by the buyer?

Your state insurance department may have a list of life settlement providers and producers that are licensed to do business in the state. Contact them to make sure yours are on the list.

Always Check with Your State

Contact your state insurance or securities departments to learn about the issues and risks of life settlements if:

- you're considering selling your life insurance policy;
- you're asked to sell your life insurance policy and your health hasn't changed since you bought the policy;
- you're asked to buy a new life insurance policy and immediately sell it for cash.

Buying a Life Insurance Policy?

If you're interested in buying a life insurance policy as an investment, contact your state securities department before you make a decision.

Selling Your Life Insurance Policy

Understanding Life Settlements

What is a Life Settlement?

A life settlement is the sale of a life insurance policy to a third party. The owner of the life insurance policy sells the policy for an immediate cash benefit.

The buyer (the life settlement provider) becomes the new owner of the life insurance policy, pays future premiums, and collects the death benefit when the insured dies.

At one time, most life settlements were from people with a life-threatening illness. Now, individuals who are not facing a health crisis may sell their life insurance policies to get cash.

Your state insurance department and the National Association of Insurance Commissioners want you to have the facts before you sell your life insurance policy. This brochure provides some of that information, but it is only a starting point. Consult your own professional financial advisor, attorney, or accountant to help you decide if this is the most suitable arrangement for you.

Consider Your Options

If you're selling your policy to get cash to pay expenses, check all of your options. You may find a way to get more cash from your life insurance policy.

1. Ask your insurance agent or company if you have any cash value in your life insurance policy. You may be able to use some of the cash value to meet your immediate needs and keep your policy in force for your beneficiaries. You may also be able to use the cash value as security for a loan from a financial institution.
2. Find out if your life insurance policy has an accelerated death benefit. An accelerated death benefit typically pays some of the policy's death benefit before the insured dies. It may be a way for you to get cash from a policy without selling it to a third party.

Consumer tips

- Comparison shop. Get quotes from several companies to make sure you have a competitive offer.
- Find out the tax implications. Not all proceeds received from the sale of your life insurance policy are tax free.
- It's important to know that any of your creditors could claim your cash settlement.
- Find out if you will lose any public assistance benefits such as food stamps or Medicaid if you get a cash settlement.
- The buyer of your policy can periodically ask you about your health status. The buyer is required to give you a privacy notice outlining who will get this personal information. Be sure to read it.
- Check all application forms for accuracy, especially your medical history. All questions must be answered truthfully and completely.
- Make sure the life settlement provider agrees to put your settlement proceeds into an independent escrow account to protect your funds during the transfer.
- Find out if you have the right to change your mind about the settlement AFTER you get the money. If so, how many days do you have to reconsider and return the money?
